Dear [redacted]
I hope you are enjoying your Saturday evening. I wanted to reach out to you again for comment on allegations about the question Ms. Horwitz claims you asked her.

I wanted to clear up a couple of things:

1. I 100% will not be mentioning your name or anyone else associated with SOCC in the article.
2. The article will be written to very clearly not take sides. It will simply present what we for sure know (I.e. The ADL got involved and the university looked into it) and then present both sides, making it very clear that it is impossible to verify what happened in the room.

I hope you will consider responding to this request to comment, as I think it is critical to present both sides of the story in an equal manner.

Best,
Brandon
